

The Truth May Lie BEHIND the Picture:

"Christina" may very well be Jeremy P. — convicted child molester and registered sex offender.

"Christopher" could easily be Chris E. — convicted child molester and batterer.

"Chrissie" might be Leroy L.— sex offender and stalker.

www.safesurfingkids.com was created as a resource for kids and their parents to help them work together as they learn about important safety precautions to take while surfing the 'net.'

Safe Surfing Kids

The Internet can be a fun, interesting, and informative place to visit, but the problem is, it's crawling with predators.

Show your parents that you understand the perils of the Internet, and that you are an educated and SAFE SURFER!

Sit down and come up with your own Online Agreement or use the one provided. Together, we can stop online predators and surf the Internet safely!

Internet Statistics

- Approximately one in four youths had an unwanted exposure online to sexual material
- Approximately one in five youths reported receiving a sexual solicitation over the Internet in the past year.
- One in 33 had received a solicitation involving someone asking to meet them somewhere, phone them, or send them something in the mail.
- Only about one in four youths who were sexually solicited over the Internet told a parent.
- Less than one in ten sexual solicitations were reported to the authorities.
- Less than three percent of all unwanted exposures to sexual material online were reported to the authorities.
- One in seventeen youths had been threatened or harassed over the Internet.
- Only 10 percent of parents surveyed and 17 percent of youths surveyed could name one specific resource or authority to which they could make a report.

Online Agreement

I am a smart and safe Internet Surfer, and I know there are certain rules I should follow and precautions I should take when online. I agree to follow these rules, and my parents agree to help me follow these rules.

1. I will never give my personal information (or anyone else's) out to anyone on the Internet without getting approval from my parents first. This includes not sending photographs.
2. I will always tell a parent immediately if I see anything on the Internet that is threatening, scary, or something I know I'm not supposed to see.
3. I will never tell anyone my password (even best friends) except for my parent(s).
4. I will never call or meet anyone in person that I've met online unless a parent approves and agrees to go with me.
5. I will never open e-mails from people I don't know, and I will never click on links unless I know where they came from and that the site they take me to is safe.
6. I will teach my parents about the Internet, and let them know exactly what I am doing when I am online
7. I will never buy anything or sign up for anything unless a parent is with me and approves it.
8. I understand that many people online are not who they say they are. Many adults are online pretending to be kids. I will always tell my parents about people I meet online.
9. I will always talk with my parents and help set up our own online rules. We will decide upon when and how long I can be online, and the areas and sites I am allowed to visit. I will not go to other areas or sites without their permission.
10. (Parent) I agree to help my child/teen follow these rules, and I agree to allow reasonable use of the Internet as long as these rules and other family rules are followed.
